Sub: Release of Ex-Gratia payment to Shri B. M. Nyamati, Retd CAO (HR No. 98311455), Bangalore Telecom District

Sir,

At the outset, we thank you for finally agreeing to our request to release the leave encashment to the above named VRS-retiree, who was served an incomplete charge-sheet just on the previous day of his retirement for alleged inaction on his part in carrying out his designated duties some 13 years back. According to this charge-sheet, this resulted in causing wrongful gain of approximately to the tune of Rs. 8,48,720/- to one agency and approximately Rs. 5,20,424/- to another agency i.e., a total of around 13.69 lakhs. Same charges for the same amount were also made against several others in the same case when all of them were working in Mehsana Telecom District of Gujarat Telecom Circle.

2. Unfortunately, even now his DCRG and Ex-gratia payment continue to remain withheld which is unjustified and unwarranted. Shri B.M.Nyamati, Retd CAO is actually entitled to receive over Rs. 20 lakhs as DCRG and Rs. 17.7 lakhs as Ex-Gratia – thus the total withheld amount goes above Rs. 37.7 lakhs as against the total recoverable amount of Rs. 13.69 lakhs. Therefore, in this case there is no justification to withhold both Ex-Gratia and DCRG, as DCRG amount alone is more than sufficient to recover Rs. 13.69 lakhs if the charges against him are finally proved.

3. In view of the above, we request that at least the Ex-gratia payment to Shri B M Nyamati, Retd CAO, BG TD be immediately released by keeping his DCRG payment alone as withheld till the final outcome of the charge-sheet is known.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S Basu)
