Sub: Consideration of the Appeal from an ailing Senior Pensioner to allow his only son and also the lone male member of the family to look after him and his bed-ridden spouse at a time they need his presence and support the most—Case of Shri Ramesh Chandra, Retd DE, BSNL living in Bareilly.
Sir,

We take up this case in which a father suffering from various old age-related chronic problems along with his bed-ridden wife, who badly need their only son and male member of the family to remain by their side. The father Ramesh Chandra, Retd DE, BSNL has recently been discharged from Hospital and undergoing treatment. His wife was also been admitted in AIIMS and in other Hospitals for treatment and now is bed-ridden.

2. His only son Shri Pankaj Kumar, SDE (HR No. 99802128) and working in the o/o PGMTD, Bareilly, UP is said to be under consideration for transfer to hard tenure station. At this stage, if his transfer is ordered, there will be no one to look after his ailing parents. He has already applied for his retention for a few more years. If this request cannot be acceded to, he has appealed for transfer to Uttarakhand or ALLTC or BSNL Corporate Office, so that in emergencies he can immediately rush to his parents.

3. A copy of the representation from Shri Pankaj Kumar, SDE along with the appeal from his father with documentary evidences of getting constant treatment from Hospitals and other Doctors are enclosed herewith for kind consideration.

4. We shall be extremely thankful if the appeal and prayer from the hapless father is considered on extremely compassionate ground.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S. Basu)
