Dated: 18.08.2015

To
Shri Alok Rawat,
Secretary (Pension),
Department of Pension & Pensioners' Welfare,
New Delhi 110003

Sub: Inordinate delay in settlement of the "regularization of suspension period" and appeal for "quashing of Order for compulsory retirement from service" – Case of Shri S N Gajbe, Retired SDE, Chandrapur SSA, BSNL Maharashtra Telecom Circle.

Sir,

We are once again to bring to your kind notice that Department of Telecommunication is not taking any concrete step to settle the above long pending cases despite the repeated representations being made by the affected retired Officer concerned. This has resulted in non-settlement of the pensionary benefits including payment of pension to the concerned officer.

We had earlier brought this fact to Member (Services), Telecom Commission with a copy endorsed to you vide our letter No. AIBSNLREA/CHQ/2015/20 dated 18.05.2015 for kind intervention. DOP&PW, on its part, had forwarded our representation to DOT vide PG Complaint No. DOPPW/P/2015/02147 dated 26.05.2015. But DOT, instead of resolving the issue, forwarded the case to BSNL which in turn has expressed its inability to resolve the same confirming that the matter pertains to DOT and has to be settled only by DOT. A copy of the reply received from BSNL is enclosed herewith for your kind perusal. This shows that DOT is just not serious to settle the cases and trying to evade its responsibility.

In view of the above, we shall earnestly request you to kindly intervene in the matter so that Department of Telecommunications takes positive steps to settle this long pending case.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(S Basu)
General Secretary
