Chief General Manager,
Jharkhand Telecom Circle,
Ranchi.

Sub: Regularisation of pension, release of gratuity & leave encashment and grant of TBU to E5 scale in respect of Shri P.S.Prasad, Retd SDE Dhanbad, consequent to his acquittal in a CBI case – Request for early forwarding of the papers to BSNL CO.

Sir,

We seek to draw your attention to the mental sufferings inflicted upon Shri Prem Shankar Prasad, Retd SDE Dhanbad, due to denial of Time Bound Upgradation, non-release of gratuity and leave encashment citing a judicial proceeding that has been prolonging for 20 years which has now ended in his acquittal.

2. The judicial proceedings came to an end with the Court of Special Judge CBI cum Additional Sessions Judge III, Dhanbad, acquitting him vide its orders dated 28.09.2024. Shri Prem Shankar Prasad has separately represented for release of his withheld gratuity, leave encashment and for grant of Time Bound Upgradation to E5 PayScale. We therefore reasonably expected that his pension will be regularised, the withheld gratuity and leave encashment are released and TBU to E5 payscale is granted without taking much time. But we are disappointed to learn that the required documents have not yet been received by BSNL Corporate Office, resulting in undue delay in settlement of the case.

3. Here, we would also like to point out that this process can neither be delayed nor denied, even in case the CBI proposes to file an appeal, since vide its letter No. 48-7/2018-Pen(B) dated 30.12.2019 BSNL had issued a clarification allowing release of retirement benefits to the BSNL absorbed/recruited employees during pendency of criminal appeal against the judgment for their acquittal and this has been implemented in several cases.

4. We would therefore request your personal attention to ensure that the papers regarding his acquittal, the Vigilance Clearance and related documents are forwarded to BSNL Corporate Office without further delay.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

9/12/24
