No. AIBSNLREA/CHQ/2024/36

Dated 31st May 2024

To

Shri Adhir Kumar Singhal,
Principal General Manager (Pers)
BSNL Corporate Office

Sub: Non-payment of interest on delayed payment of Gratuity – rejection of claim by Shri B.M. Kolki, Retd SDE Kolhapur

Ref: Our letter No.AIBSNLREA/CHQ/2024/7 dated 31st January 2024

Sir,

We request your kind attention to our letter cited under reference [copy enclosed] requesting payment of interest on delayed payment of Gratuity in respect of Shri B.M. Kolki, Retd SDE Kolhapur.

2. While Shri B.M.Kolki retired on superannuation on 31.07.2021 and no disciplinary/judicial proceedings was pending on the date of his retirement, payment of gratuity was delayed on the plea of pending issue of Presidential orders for absorption in BSNL. BSNL authorities failed to initiate the process for issue of Presidential Orders immediately after issue of final penalty orders in a disciplinary proceeding on 29.03.2017, as the disciplinary proceedings had not led to his dismissal or removal from service. But it took five years for issue of Presidential Orders for his absorption in BSNL, on 11.04.2022. And his gratuity was paid only on 25.10.2022 along with the CVP and leave encashment for BSNL period, 18 months after his retirement.

3. When Shri B.M.Kolki represented for payment of interest on late payment of gratuity, CGMT, Maharashtra Circle has replied that "Subsequently and pursuant to the DoT letter dated 16.03.2022 and BSNL Corporate office dated 21.03.2022, the presidential order of Sh. B M Kolki (retd. SDE) was issued on 11.04.2022, following which the retirement benefits were released. Further, the case was intricate with criminal charges and court orders as opposed to a regular superannuation case. Therefore, in view of the above, the request for interest of the payment of gratuity by the applicant is hereby declined". The reply does not reveal why there was a delay of five years for issue of Presidential Orders, when the judicial proceedings had ended in acquittal on 22.05.2015 and the final orders in the disciplinary proceedings had been issued on 29.03.2017. There is no justification for this five years' delay and Shri B.M.Kolki cannot be penalised for the delay on the part of the administration, howsoever intricate the case was perceived by the authorities.

4. Also, no effort had been taken by the administration to sanction provisional gratuity where the amount of pension and gratuity cannot be determined for reasons other than the departmental or judicial proceedings as provided under Rule 62 of CCS (Pension) Rules, 2021. As a result, the pensioner has lost reasonable bank interest on Rs.16,21,483/= for a period of 18 months, for no fault on his part.

5. It is therefore requested that, Maharashtra Telecom Circle may please be advised to re-visit the issue and cause sanction of interest on delayed payment of gratuity and payment without further delay. We would like to reiterate that undue delay on the part of the administration in processing and issuing of Presidential Orders cannot be a valid reason for late payment of gratuity and the pensioner should not be penalised for the administrative delay.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

 31/5/24
