DHLTH/E/2022/10370 CPGRAMS-REPLY/CGHS/HYD/2022/38 22-07-2022 Thank you for contacting us. A CPGRAM from Sh. Balsubramanian R.R regards to suggestions for improvement in functioning of CGHS has been received at this office on 13-7-2022. This office hereby acknowledge your valid suggestions in different aspects of health delivery system of CGHS. The point no. 1 to 5 as policy matters are under the jurisdiction of higher authorities of Ministry of Health & FW which will be intimated to the notice of the competent authorities for necessary action . The point No.6 regards to incidences not getting credit facility to the pensioners, this office have issued memo recently and reiterated the CGHS guidelines for credit facility to all empaneled hospitals under CGHS Hyderabad and in case of any specific complaints against HCO ,this office shall initiate necessary action to rectify the issue. The pendency of bill payment is getting reduced significantly now because of the new bill clearing agency ie National Health Authority clearing the bills in fast & time bound manner and working towards NIL pendency goal in near future.
